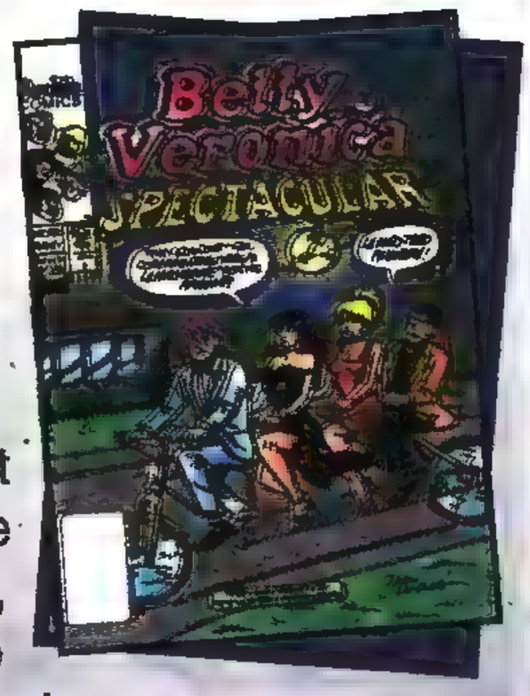
EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

You may find this hard to believe, but in a recent issue of Betty & Veronica Spectacular, number 28 March to be exact, we goofed! The two-part story entitled "That's of Snow Account!" was actually written by Kathleen Webb and not Dan Parent. While Dan is a talented writer and artist, credit must be given where credit is due. My apologies to Kathleen. For all you readers who own a copy of this book, let's keep the record straight. Cross out Dan Parent's name for writing and insert Kathleen Webb's. If you don't own a copy, you missed out on a great story.



Since we've been on the subject of Betty & Veronica Spectacular, let's talk about issue number 30 July (on sale in May). It's prom time at Riverdale High. Archie needs a date, Betty wants Archie to take her to the prom, Veronica wants Archie, Cheryl Blossom wants Archie. See a problem here? Betty and Veronica may have to join forces in order to solve it. The plan?....simple, keep Archie away from Cheryl. I don't think so. How about you? Be sure to read "Prom Here to Eternity."

Ever have problems with your next-door neighbor? I think many of us had, at one time or another. Sometimes, we unknowingly create problems. Such is the case with Jughead Jones and his family. In a story called "Good Neighbors" a fence is put up between the Jones' property and their next-door neighbor's. Who put up this unsightly barrier dividing these land owners? The plot thickens, the battle lines are drawn. What happens next? Don't miss JUGHEAD #106 JULY, on sale next month.
